WALTERS SUPPORTS AUTO RUMMAGE 6-CENT FARE BILL

In State Senate After Passage By Assembly—First Witness Wanted In Bribe Probe Can't Be Found.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, N. Y., April 9.—Senator J. Henry Walters, leader of the Republican majority in the senate, today came out in support of the Carson-Martin six cent fare bill which is now the subject of a probe, by the senate judiciary committee, of charges that a $500,000 fund had been raised to force its passage. His public statement followed the assembly's action last night in passing the bill by a vote of 77 to 63, one more vote than necessary.

Senator Walters declared that while he favored passage of the bill he doubted its constitutionality. If the courts held that the franchise agreements between cities and traction corporations in which fares were limited, were contracts under the constitutional provision.

Charles R. Hotelling, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, reported today to senate leaders from New York city he had been unable to locate a man he is seeking to subpoena as the first witness in the senate judiciary committee's probe of Senator George F. Thompson's charges of an alleged $500,000 fund to force passage of the six-cent fare bill.

EMPLOYMENT PLANS FOR SERVICE MEN

Government Representative Will Return For Further Conference With Local Committee—C. of C. Offers Facilities.

As a result of co-operation of local organizations it is expected a plan will be worked out whereby assistance may be given returned soldiers and sailors in the matter of securing employment.

The sub-committee of the mayor's welcoming committee, of which Joseph Herbert is chairman, has been studying conditions with a view to finding the most effective way to act, and on Tuesday Lieut. Fred W. Caswell, of the war department, was in town consulting with the mayor, Mr. Herbert, William E. Simmons, and Secretary Hudson of the Chamber of Commerce in an effort to hasten the movement here. He expects to offer further aid when he returns from New York on Thursday or Friday.

The assistance of the Red Cross, K. of C., Y. M. C. A., and other city organizations is to be sought and already the chamber of commerce has offered the use of its rooms and clerical facilities.

Mr. Simmons, whose services would be particularly valuable, has offered to co-operate in any way possible. He was in charge of the U. S. Employment Service offices here until they were recently discontinued, and will now act as executive officer of the sub-committee.

SALE A SUCCESS

New as Well as Old Cars Are Being Sold as a Result of the Horseless Horse Fair.

The street sale of used automobiles this week at the Academy Green is not only successful in drawing a crowd of curiosity seekers, but also in selling cars. The unexpected feature is that it is selling new cars as well as old ones, one dealer having sold two old cars and also two new ones as a direct result of the street exhibition. In all eight old cars and two new ones were sold in the first day and a half of the sale, which will continue all of this week. Of course those who come first have the largest variety to select from, but there are still a lot of good ones left and all are bargains.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Stockholm, April 9.—The Russian Bolshevik plans for a world revolution will be pressed with greater vigor than ever despite the fact that the Red regime at Moscow has found it necessary to introduce "the technical methods of capitalism." Nicolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, stated in an article in the Red organ Pravda.

Advices received here today quoted Lenin as saying: "The technical methods of capitalism are absolutely indispensable until the communist society finds other methods. This does not mean for a renunciation of a world revolution; on the contrary, it will be pressed with greater vigor than before. The introduction of foreign trade is inevitable. PROFIT AND THE PLEASURE

That Comes From True Economy are There for Those Who Carefully Scrutinize the Dress-up Ads.

Maybe you are not in the habit of reading the advertisements in The Freeman, or have been so busy as to overlook some of them this week. Now since The Freeman does not write the advertisements which it prints, it can unblushingly ask its readers to take note of them. In fact go back to Monday evening's paper and look over all of the Dress-up Week advertising.

It can assure its readers that they will find some remarkably profitable and interesting reading matter contained therein, for the merchants have been and will be, all this week, offering the smartest, newest, most up to date goods of every sort for prices that should induce everyone to stock up during the week.

Apparently both men and women are taking Dress-up week literally for the sales of hats, shoes, suits and costumes, and coats for men as well as women, together with all the accompanying accessories has been unusually large this week so far. It undoubtedly will be larger as the week goes on for who wants their neighbor or best friend, be he man or woman, to outdo one in looking prosperous, which goes so far toward being prosperous?

Another line of Dress-up which has been especially popular has been that of home decorating of all sorts. And many people will, this week avail themselves of the specialties both as to clothes and house decorations and refreshings, whether or no they put them in immediately.

However, this is not the column in which to learn the most possible about the advantages of this Dress-up Week project, and was said in the beginning of this article, the place to look for all such information is in the various advertisements of The Freeman for the remainder of the week.

KINGSTON BICYCLE DEALERS' ASS'N

Men Organize and Plan Events for Week of May 3—Races to be a Feature.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Kingston Bicycle Dealers' Association was attended last night at C. E. Cressler's shop on lower Broadway by six of the prominent distributors and repair men of the city. This is a new organization for the purpose of boosting the bicycle business in Kingston and every dealer in the city is expected to become interested during the campaign which they will launch for the sale of the two wheeled vehicle. At present nine dealers are members of the association, covering practically every location in the city.

The Association Officers.

The first meeting of the organization for the purpose of electing officers was held on April 3, and resulted in the election of the following: President, Arthur Ellison; vice president, Harry C. Van Aken; secretary, Edsel P. Flowers; and treasurer, Charles N. Behrens. At the initial meeting Mr. Forman, representing the United Trade Directorate, explained the details that will be carried out throughout the country during bicycle week, which will occur during the entire week of May 3-10.

This program includes races between competitors in local districts and a parade in each city. Arthur Ellison was appointed to interview Mayor Canfield on the plan of holding these races for bicycle owners in this city and also on holding a bicycle parade and obtain his permission to hold these interesting contests and events.

Just where these races will be held is uncertain but the dealers are desirous of securing Pine Grove avenue for the contestants to test their speed. The parade would probably be held on Broadway if the mayor's permission can be procured. The winners of the races will be given handsome prizes for their work and only local children will be eligible to compete in the respective heats that will be planned. At last night's meeting it was decided not to hold over seven races and although they are uncertain in character at present the following were suggested: A school boy's race, Boy Scout race, girl's race, Girl Scouts race, a mixed race and a relay race.

Bike Grows in Favor.

This is the first time that local bicycle dealers have come to the front and they are on the job to promote the business and interest in their line of industry to the utmost. Bicycle races will be a real feature for Kingston and every one is willing to back up our local live wire dealers for these events among bicycle riders of this city. No little enthusiasm has already been stirred up since the inauguration of these plans to see some speed kings in action on bicycles in our city.

The dealers present last night also adopted a plan of forming price lists to be submitted at the next meeting and after comparison the association will set a standard price list for bicycle supplies at all dealer members of the association. This one price operation ought to appeal to all of those interested in the welfare of both the dealer and owner.

A Permanent Organization.

Plans were also discussed for the extensive advertising that is to be done by the association in the near future. Everything is well under way now for a permanent organization that will boom the bicycle business in Kingston and create an interest marking the importance of the bicycle in the pleasure and commercial world.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the shop of C. E. Cressler opposite the armory on next Tuesday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock.

The dealers and repair men who were present last night were: Charles N. Behrens, Arthur Ellison, Harry C. Van Aken, Peter Keller, C. E. Cressler and Edsel P. Flowers, representing C. A. Warren.

Many Sturgeon Caught in River.

Hudson river sturgeon, formerly styled "Albany beef," are coming back, according to fishermen along the river. The night recently two hundred were caught in drift nets at the river. It may be another surprise for the river men similar to the one of last year when the shad came back with a higher run than had been up the river in several years. The sturgeon fished in history, for Washington Irving in his story of the Hudson river told how big the kind of fish grew, and John Burrows in 1853 in a leading magazine of that time described the game fish, his haunts and habits. In the old days, when sturgeon were plentiful the folk along the river used to catch them and fry out the oil, throwing the meat away.

DONOHUE WILL CASE FINISHED

In Favor of Proponents and Goes Back to Surrogate—Hansen-Birch Case an Expensive One Over $14 Difference.

The trial of the action entitled, "Matter of the Probate of Will of James Donohue," came to a quick finish in county court Tuesday afternoon. After contestants had concluded their testimony Judge Fowler directed the jury to find a verdict in favor of the six questioners which Surrogate Gill had submitted for the jury to consider, which were in effect. Was the will properly drawn, was it legally attested, legally acknowledged, was the testator of sound mind and had he been unduly influenced. The jury found as directed, which was in favor of proponents on all questions and the matter now goes back to surrogate's court and the will probated. There was no testimony that the testator was of unsound mind or memory or that there had been any influence used.

Suit Involves $14 Dispute.

In county court this morning, after case No. 3, John C. Hansen vs. Abner H. Birch, was taken up for trial, the jurors not called on the trial were excused until April 27, to which date the court will take a recess on the completion of the trial, criminal cases to be taken up on the aforementioned date. In the case on trial the jury is being asked to decide whether plaintiff or appellant, Hansen, shall accept $52.50 offered by Birch, defendant, respondent, or receive $66.11 demanded. The parties live in the town of Shawangunk and are neighboring farmers and one helped the other on the respective farms under agreement. Hansen claims $66.11 and Birch contends he owes $52.50, which he is willing to pay but which Hansen refuses to take. Hence the law suit, in which 12 jurors, a county judge, two attorneys, a number of witnesses are engaged. The case took up the entire morning and at 12:30 o'clock a recess was taken until 2 p. m. Earl H. Houghtaling is attorney for plaintiff—Andrew J. Cook for defendant. The case has been tried in a justice's court in the town of Shawangunk and this is an appeal.

ULSTER DOCTORS ENDORSE CLINIC

For Treatment of Venereal Diseases
—Dr. Gage-Day Spoke—Committee Named—Condemn Health Insurance Bill.

Open discussion on the forming of a clinic in this city for the treatment of venereal diseases occupied the whole attention of physicians present at the regular monthly meeting of the Ulster County Medical Society held in the Wiltz Inn last night. Dr. J. R. Nelson while president of the society last year inaugurated a plan for this important clinic but was unable to secure the co-operation of other local physicians. At last night's meeting all in attendance expressed their endorsement of the plan and offered earnest co-operation for its early establishment. The spread of these diseases is alarming and it was decided that the public will have to be educated to the importance of stamping out this menace to society. It was decided to dominate a great deal of disease and to cause a lot of suffering. Dr. A. W. Bunkley of New York city, who is considered an authority on the subject said that over 50 per cent of the venereal disease cases are acquired innocently and the practice of receiving treatment from the family doctor is necessary if the plague is to end.

Federal Aid

Dr. Mary Gage Day was called upon as being more familiar with the matter of establishment of these clinics and stated that the Federal government provided $100,000 for the establishment of these clinics the first of the year and which was expected to last until July when it would provide another $100,000 for the purpose of building and furnishing equipment, providing the state gives the same amount. The government is showing quite some interest in this campaign and this means that the idea is most important.

When the plan of having a clinic founded in this city was presented it was opposed to a certain extent from the fact that persons being afflicted with such disease would not go in a conspicuous manner in front of the public to the clinic and so such a plan would be impossible. It was thus thought that a law could be enforced providing that if a person was to go to a family doctor with an infection and could not afford to receive proper treatment, instead of neglecting the disease to be compelled to go to a clinic and be properly cared for free of charge. It is an urgent request of the physicians that the individuals infected with venereal diseases go to their family doctor and be cared for. The time has come when this question is very serious and dangerous and the cooperation of the individual in order to avoid possible spread of the disease is necessary. It was decided that measures be taken to further the idea of a public health center clinic and an educational campaign. The idea was favored by a full vote. Dr. Stern read the report of the meeting of the senate and assembly committees on public hearing of health insurance bill.

Five on Committee

Dr. Stern moved that a committee of five be appointed to keep in touch with the present matter and advise the society of the steps taken with all expenses to be paid by the society. This motion was seconded by Dr. Day and the following committee was appointed: Chairman Dr. Frank Eastman, Drs. Day, Stern, Snyder of this city and Emerick of Saugerties.

A luncheon was then served following the business meeting. The following physicians were present: Drs. Day, Stern, Eastman, Snyder, Nelson, Ross, Robinson, Connolly, Gates, Mambert, O'Meara, Ingalls, Hasbrouck, Gillette, Vrooman and Emerick of Saugerties.

The society has voted unanimously against the proposed Davenport-Donohue health insurance bill taking the position that this bill would have a beneficial effect upon the public health matters in general.

The Apple.

The apple is the commonest and yet the most varied and beautiful of fruits. A dish of them is as becoming to the center table in the winter as the vase of flowers was in the summer—a bouquet of Spitzenberghs and Greenings and Northern Spies. A rose when it blooms, an apple is a rose when it ripens. It pleases every sense to which it can be addressed, the touch, the smell, the sight, the taste, and when it falls in the still October days it pleases the ear. It is a call to a banquet, it is a signal that the feast is ready. The hough would fain hold it, but it can now assert its independence; it can now have a career of its own.—Burroughs.

Mine Tungsten in Australia.

Australia is second in importance among British territories producing tungsten ores. In Queensland many of the principal mines have quite recently been acquired by one of the largest of the concerns which have established tungsten reduction plants in Great Britain since the war, and the event appears to promise a new era of progress for this branch of mining in Queensland. Wolfram is mined in New South Wales and Victoria, while important quantities of scheelite, another ore of tungsten, are obtained in New Zealand and in Tasmania.

France's "Sacred Road."

The French government is arranging for the construction of a "sacred road" 400 miles long, from the coast of Flanders to Alsace. It is proposed that this road should follow, as far as may be found practical, the actual line on which the combatants fought each other for three years. In the countless words "through which this road will ultimately pass" will be found the beautifully remembered scenes of those who have given their lives for their country.

CITY NOW BUT A MEMORY

Ur, Birthplace of Abraham, Once Important, Today Consists Only of Vast Group of Mounds.

The British, on their recent advance in Mesopotamia, passed over or at least near the ancient city of Ur, where Abraham was born and grew up; and thence that he departed with his family and relations on a journey to Palestine that was destined to be so productive of important events for the Hebrews.

We are accustomed to think of the days of the early Pharaohs as almost lost in antiquity, but Ur was prehistoric eight thousand or 9,000 years ago that great Chaldean city was a seaport on the shore (or near it) of the Persian gulf. It traded with India and all the then known parts of the world.

Today Ur (or what remains of it) is 120 miles as the crow flies from the head of the Persian gulf. Surely it has not moved; but the alluvial deposits carried down by rivers have built out the land so that the head of the gulf is no longer where it used to be. The pushing southward of the shore line is known to have averaged about a certain distance yearly since the time of Alexander the Great, so that the period when Ur was a seaport can be reckoned with fair accuracy.

Ur today is about half-way between the head of the gulf and the ruins of ancient Babylon. It is near the Euphrates—across the river from the modern town of Nasareth—and is represented by a vast group of mounds that conceal remains of extraordinary interest. Undoubtedly it was war that destroyed this ancient metropolis—as it seems to destroy everything that is worth while, sooner or later.

Out of one huge mound has been dug the remains of a pyramidal tower which is regarded by Assyriologists as the most perfect specimen of Babylonian architecture known. It is built in a series of stages, like the tower of Babel, with a continuous flight of broad steps running up the outside. It originally supported a temple—the great Temple of the Moon.

Glasses for Appearance Sake

"Miss Bessie if you are going to town today I wish you would buy my sister, who lives in the north a pair of glasses." "Why Annie replied the young lad, addressed "I could not get your sister a pair of glasses. She must have her sight tested so that the glasses may be suitable." "Oh," said Annie reassuringly "she wrote me that what fits my nose fits her nose!"

HARD ON MISS A.

Curse—He's just crazy to marry Edna—He must be.

Not Always.
"Distance lends enchantment to the view."
Exception through-out your day you're true.

The Impartial Doctor.
"Mr. Doctor has the reputation of being quite a lady killer."
"How so?" "Miss doesn't make the slightest distinction between the sexes."—London American.

GETTING A LIGHT.

A condemned sinner was vainly endeavoring to light his pipe.
"Tell me," he said to Satan, "do you keep these fires of yours burning incessantly, without regard to the cost of fuel?"

"Incessantly," was the sepulchral reply.

"Well, I can't blame you. With the kind of matches we're getting, if you ever let the fires go out, the chances are you'll never get 'em started again."

Crowding the Quarters.
"We feel crowded in this flat," said the tenant, diffidently.

"No wonder," exclaimed the landlord. "This flat was never intended for a family of six."

"But there are only myself and wife."

"I know better. Besides you two there are a canary bird and three gold-fish."

Differently Qualified.
Mr. James, I am surprised at your reply. Is it that you come home every night with a black eye or a bruised nose, and that good little boy across the street never seems to have any trouble with the other boys? Is he a better fighter than you?

James—No, but I guess he must be a better runner.

IDEAL heat renews old homes

Remodeling of buildings should begin in the basement. Next time you see alterations being made, note what material is saved—or thrown out! You will find the tin and sheet iron heating devices go to the dump heap—but you never see IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators thrown out that way. They make a building always new—and never wear out or lose efficiency. When IDEAL heated buildings are remodeled, extra sections and more radiators are added to furnish the additional heat needed—the building stays in the same desirable class for rental or sale. IDEAL Heating Outfits are, therefore, a long-lasting investment—not an expense!

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

These outfits guarantee you a lifetime of heating comfort and fuel economy!

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators. Perfectly clean and efficient.

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators enable you to get not only the greatest possible volume of heat and therefore the utmost value from your coal, but these outfits guarantee perfect distribution and control of that heat! No "cold side" to the house. No drafty floors!

The greatest money saver in a building is IDEAL heating

If you have a building to rent or to sell, you'll find it a splendid talking basis to say: "It's heated with IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators." It means that the tenant will be glad to pay 15% more rent because of the comfort, health protection, convenience, cleanliness, and fuel economy he will experience, or in selling you get back the full price paid for the outfit, which does not rust out or wear out.

Don't go through another Winter without remodeling your home, store, flats, shop, school, or church to the extent of enjoying the comfort and fuel saving of IDEAL-AMERICAN heating! Put quickly in old or new buildings. Ask for free book "Ideal Heating." Let us serve you now.

Built-in, genuine Vacuum Cleaner—iron section pipe runs to each floor.

We also make the ARCO VACUUM Cleaner connected by iron section pipe to various floors of houses, flats, schools, churches, hotels, etc. Through a light weight hose ALL the dirt, cobwebs, hair, threads, snuffs, etc., are drawn with lightning rapidity down the iron piping into bag, sealed dust-bracket in cellar. No dragging around a clumsy, inefficient portable cleaner—instead, you have a practical outfit that is part of the building—like radiator heating. Ask for catalog—it does not obligate you to buy.

KINGSTON, N. Y., APRIL 3, 1919.

California indignantly objects to being addressed into "Calif." but that is no worse than "Me," "Pa," "Geo," "Miss," "Mick," "Ill," "Minn," "Wic," "Neb," etc., to say nothing of "Wash."

According to report, Mr. Hohenzollern begins dinner as an emperor in full state, becomes a spouting Socialist by the middle of the meal, and towards its end gets upon his feet to serve as a waiter. Looks "nutty."

We think we are paying sinful prices for coal, and we are, but we are in better luck than Italy which produces no coal at all and has contracted for three million tons of American coal at $25 a ton delivered at Genoa within six months.

Comic scientists contend that it takes the body three months to recover from a fit of anger. Perhaps they have never investigated those persons who get mad or hug a couch every day and even seem to get fat on such exercise of the emotions.

Lord George says that "The League of Nations represents the greatest attempt that ever has been made to substitute reason and justice for force and intrigue as the governing principle of international relations." Undoubtedly. The only question is whether it is practical enough to be made successful.

No less than 5,500 Americans who fought in France have been officially marked "missing" after careful and prolonged inquiry. The proportion of the missing is greater than in previous wars because of the modern engines of destruction capable of blowing into minute fragments whole squads of men and rendering identification of a single victim impossible.

To the victors belong only a part of the spoils in these times. The Post Office Department will hold a civil service examination for the selection of a postmaster for Boston, an $8,000 a year job. Thirty-nine candidates, Democrats and Republicans, have already entered the lists, and these are said to include the State Treasurer of Massachusetts, an ex-Mayor of Boston and an ex-Secretary of State.

A terrible story of German brutality to wounded American and allied prisoners comes from veterans returned to Camp Dix. The wounded were allowed to lie for days among decomposing bodies of the dead. Arms and legs were cut off without real reason and when there was not even the slightest excuse "trigger fingers" were deliberately whacked off, thus preventing any effective soldiering in the future. Such are a few of the items in a special to the Philadelphia Record of April 3.

PLENTY OF WHEAT.

The excessive price of wheat is not the result of scarcity. There is wheat in great abundance. Nearly 25 years ago Sir William Crookes, the eminent English chemist and physicist, who died the other day, predicted that within a quarter of a century the world's wheat supply would fall because the increase of population would run far in advance of production, and that in consequence famine prices would be seen everywhere. The prophecy has been pretty well fulfilled in the matter of exorbitant prices, but not on account of a falling supply of wheat, except in the wretchedly devastated regions of Europe. In the United States the production of wheat has greatly increased, more than keeping pace with the expansion of population.

This country's winter wheat now in sight is estimated at 900,000,000 bushels, and the spring wheat crop now going into the soil is expected to raise the total for 1919 to a billion and a quarter bushels. This will be three to four hundred million bushels more than the bumper winter and spring crops put together of 1914, when, just before the world war came, American wheat was clamoring for buyers at 70 to 80 cents a bushel. The government war price, still in force, is $2.20 a bushel, and sometimes from 20 to 40 cents more is received by the growers who are holding back their present stocks in spite of the avalanche of new wheat soon due. Failure in a "bushel" is not the trouble. The trouble is the government's standing war price and the wheat growers' determination to make fortunes while they have the chance. Only artificial or accidental conditions have fulfilled a part of the Crookes prophecy. Mother Earth and man's industry are still capable of supplying the world with wheat.

"She is a perfect hostess, isn't she?" "Certainly is. Why, at her dinner parties you never know that she isn't enjoying herself."—Judge.

"Mr. Moneybags, I'd like to marry your daughter." "What are your prospects?" "You know better than I do. The fellows at the club say I haven't got a chance."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Do you think suppressing news ever helps matters?" "Not a bit," answered Senator Sorghum. "If I felt that way about it, I'd arrange for a rigid censorship of every weather bulletin."—Washington Star.

"Wombat, your wife is talking about going to Europe next summer." "Well, it doesn't cost any more to talk about going to Europe than it does to talk about going to Horne's Crossroads. And that's where we're going."—Kansas City Journal.

"I always feel like singing in the springtime," remarked the exuberant citizen. "Too bad!" replied the gloomy friend. "Don't you enjoy the beautiful spring?" "Thoroughly. And I believe in letting well enough alone."—Washington Star.

The KITCHEN CABINET

I am bluer than anything that can happen to me. All these things, sorrow, misfortune and suffering, are outside my door. I am in the house and I have the key.—Chas. Lummis.

WHOLESALE FOODS.

The art of seasoning is not one that receives proper attention, for it is one of the most important things in cooking.

Roast Hamburg Steak.—To one and one-half pounds of hamburger steak add two slices of fat salt pork finely chopped, one-half cupful of bread crumbs, one egg, and three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt. Shape in a loaf, dredge with flour and put seven strips of salt pork over the top. Roast 45 minutes, basting every seven minutes, first with one-fourth cupful of water and later with the liquor from the pan. To the liquid in the pan add water to make one cupful. Brown one and one-half tablespoonsful of butter, add two tablespoonsful of flour to make the sauce. Pour round the loaf and serve.

Deerfoot Potatoes.—Wash and pare potatoes of uniform size. Remove from each two portions using an apple corer. Fill the cavities with sausage and insert the rounds of potatoes to conceal the sausage. Put into a pan and bake in a hot oven until the potatoes are soft. These are nice baked in a dish and baked while baking with water and fat.

Keewick Pudding.—Bring three-fourths cupful sugar and one cupful boiling water to the boiling point. Beat three eggs slightly; add one-fourth cupful of sugar and a few grains of salt. Pour on the boiling syrup and cook until the mixture thickens; then add one and one-fourth tablespoonsful of granulated gelatin, soaked in one-fourth cupful cold water and one-fourth cupful of lemon juice. Strain and stir until the mixture thickens. Turn into a mold and chill. Garnish with sweetened and flavored whipped cream.

Baked Bananas With Jelly Sauce.—Put bananas peeled and replaced in their skins into a granite saucepan. Bake until soft; remove the skins; roll in powdered macaroons; surround with jelly sauce made by heating a half-cupful jelly and mixing it with two-thirds of a cupful of boiling water. Thicken with arrow root, cook for five minutes; add a tablespoonful of butter and a teaspoonful of lemon juice.

HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE TOWN

The Stroller Hears That You Have to Have Confidence in Yourself or You Will Never Make a Success in Life.

"What do you think is the most necessary thing for a man to have to make a success in life?" asked the customer, as he dropped the newspaper he was reading and leaned back more comfortably in his chair.

"That's rather a hard proposition to answer off hand," replied the busy barber, "but aside from health I believe that confidence in oneself is the most necessary thing to have. Give a man health and confidence and I see no reason why he should not make his mark."

"Are you not forgetting education?" queried the customer.

"No," retorted the barber, "for I am taking it for granted that the man has at least some education, but I don't care how bright an intellect a man may have if he has not confidence in himself it will never help him get ahead."

"You know and I know lots of people who are somebody in the world today," replied the barber, "and you know as well as I do that they are no brighter than many others who they have passed on the road of life. If you look at their life closely you will see that they have succeeded because they have had confidence in themselves."

"Maybe so," granted the customer, somewhat doubtfully.

"Sure it is so," retorted the barber, "the ones who have succeeded in life have said to themselves I can do that and they have gone ahead and done it. When the proposition was put up to them by some one higher in authority they have replied 'sure, why not' and then made a stab at it, and by jinks they have got away with it too."

"Well, every man can't be rich," argued the customer.

"You have the wrong idea," replied the barber, "a man's success in life can't always be judged by the amount of wealth he has piled up, but rather by how well he has filled the job. Wealth don't always mean success by a jugful."

LOCAL MERCHANTS STUNG BY FORGER

In Spite of Warning Issued by Police, Slick Forger Works Same Trick as in Newburgh—Secured About $150—How he Did It.

Two weeks ago the Newburgh police notified the Kingston police of the work of a forger who had "stung" several Newburgh merchants and then skipped. Immediately the local police department got busy and warned the local merchants to watch out for a clever forger, and explained how he had turned the trick in Newburgh, and would undoubtedly try to turn it here.

Late Tuesday afternoon a short, smooth faced man wearing a blue serge suit walked briskly into the branch store of J. T. Johnson at Broadway and O'Neill street and placed an order for $40 worth of wire, which he wished to use to erect a fence. He asked that the wire be sent to his address, "No. 250 Washington avenue." Asking what the bill amounted to, he opened his pocketbook and withdrew a check for $98.50 and offered it in payment of the $40 bill for wire. He received the difference in cash, amounting to nearly $50 and then walked out and got in his automobile and drove to the store of the next victim.

Wire Delivered—No Such Number. In the meantime the wire ordered by the slick stranger was taken over to Washington avenue, but the driver of the wagon was unable to locate any "No. 250" as there was no such number. Then it was that the merchant decided that there was something decidedly wrong and notified the police. This was about 7 o'clock, or over an hour later.

Mr. Stewart Orders Tires. "Mr. Stewart" then called to see Lewis Brown, No. 244 Clinton avenue, and ordered some 60 odd dollars worth of auto tires. These need not be delivered, however, as he would call for them later. Here also he presented a check for the usual amount and received back some 30 odd dollars in change. Part of the change, however, was in the form of a check for $15 which Mr. Brown drew up and handed "Mr. Stewart."

Mr. Brown later in the evening notified the police that he had stopped payment on the check.

Needed China Closet.

"Mr. Stewart's" shopping tour was not completed until he had bought a china closet. He selected the furniture store of S. L. Torrey as being nearby his other victims and entered a few minutes before 6 o'clock, just as they were getting ready to close up. He did not take long in selecting the piece of furniture and again offered a check for the usual amount in payment and received back about $50 in change. Mrs. Torrey gave Mr. Stewart a check for $30 and balance in cash. Payment on this check will also be stopped by Mrs. Torrey.

Police Notified Half Hour Later.

A half an hour later Mrs. Torrey notified police headquarters of the deal made. Chief Wood and the police immediately got busy and made a hurried search of the city, but given a half hour start "Mr. Stewart" in his little runabout was twenty-five or more miles away.

The Phoney Checks.

The police report the checks were drawn on the Quassaick National Bank of Newburgh to the order of George H. Stewart and signed with the name of Edward Robinson. All three checks were for $98.50 or $99.50, as those figures seemed to appeal to "Mr. Stewart."

Worked Same Game Before.

Mr. Stewart answers the description furnished by the Newburgh merchants where he worked exactly the same game and got away with it. The local police figure that "Mr. Stewart" cleaned up about $150 in Kingston in half an hour.

"Mr. Stewart" is gone, but not forgotten.

Perfect Timing Determines Engine Flexibility

On the precise accuracy of camshaft operation depends the engine's instant response to the slightest regulation of spark or throttle—its flexibility for loafing in traffic or "jumping" the car ahead.

To maintain this perfect rhythm and harmony of valve and ignition mechanism requires correct lubrication—camshaft bearings cushioned against wear and in perfect alignment—cams, gears and tappets working easily and with absolute accuracy. It's the kind of lubrication you get with

PROOF OF BIBLICAL TRUTH

Religious Writer Points Out Parallel Between Germany and the Recorded Fall of Man.

The world war has brought to the fore striking illustrations of the truth of Bible doctrines as usually interpreted by what is called the old theology. Glance for a moment at some of the old Bible truths that the war has illustrated and vindicated.

Take, for example, the fall of man as recounted in Genesis. Some have had difficulty with this fundamental doctrine of the Bible. I was talking a short time ago with a brilliant young college man, steeped in the scientific skepticism of the age, and he said:

"But, doctor, think how irrational is the theory that man fell in a garden, just created by an all-wise and all-powerful God!"
I replied by pointing out the very interesting fact that modern Germany also fell in a garden. There was not a country upon the earth more blessed and prosperous than Germany. Her progress in all lines, except morals and spirituality, had been marvelous. If she had remained true to right ideals she would have gone on undoubtedly into the leadership of the whole earth. But even in that garden of prosperity and peace the devil of selfishness, untruth and false ambition entered, and the ruling classes fell, and, like the fall in Eden, carried others down with them.—Dr. John Roach Straton in Christian Herald.

COULD NOT SEE BEE-BOMBS

Washington Authorities Turned Down Suggestion That Was Made in Perfect Seriousness.

It would be hard to say which of the many impractical suggestions toward "winning the war" that occurred to individuals and were submitted to Washington was the most imaginative, but conscripting the busy bees certainly deserves honorable mention. Enormous numbers of these milliforous or anthophilous aculeate hymenopterous insects, as the dictionary calls them, were to be distributed by airplanes over the enemy trenches, presumably by dropping what might be called bee-bombs, and the confusion that would follow may easily be imagined by anybody who has ever got into trouble with a single beehive. But the military experts failed to see the utility of the scheme. Perhaps they foresaw that the enemy would promptly provide himself with netting and devise bee-removal. The aviators who distributed the bee-bombs would naturally have been called apiators. The idea was ridiculous, but let those laugh who have never thought of something that seemed sensible in the evening and absurd next morning.

COULD USE HIS HEAD, BUT—

Sam Would Have Had More Conscience Had He Been in Possession of Another Weapon.

There was once a very successful business man, whose two pet hobbies were system and overhauling trying to impress on his employees the importance of doing their own thinking. His motto was "Use Your Head," and he had the office and the factory plastered with the sentiment.

One day he hired a likely looking colored man as his office porter. Sam, that of course being his name, forthwith received the startling information that man is a thinking animal and he Sam, must keep that in mind as much as possible.

About twenty minutes after Sam began work the boss, glancing out of the office door toward the factory, noticed that a row had started among some of the factory hands and the whole bunch was trying to settle the argument in that peaceful and quiet way possible with plenty of good stiff stones.

"Now, Sam," said the boss, "I shall depend on you to knock up that fight at once. The method to take must come from your own brain, but whatever you do, Sam, remember, 'Use your head!'"

"Yes, yes, yes, it certainly does look like Al had been using his head, but Al—uh—Sam—would feel a little safer, boss, if Al had my rough too."

NOW BACON HAS A RIVAL

French Professor Asserts That William Stanley, Earl of Derby, Really Was "Shakespeare."

To those who take imaginative pleasure in the construction that Bacon wrote Shakespeare, the announcement of yet another candidate for that distinction must be rather annoying. William Stanley, sixth earl of Derby, is the latest "real Shakespeare," discovered and produced by Prof. Abel Le Franc, a French scholar, who claims that only an Englishman who had lived in France could have written "A Lover's Labor Lost," and that William Stanley was the only contemporary Englishman who fits the bill also that there was an incident for the theater in the Stanley family, and that William is known to have written poetry. The argument seems to be about as complete as that of the person who found

Largest Tunnel in the World.

Northumberland has the war, the largest tunnel in the world is well under course of construction in France, its object being to give Marseilles connection with Paris and the interior of the country in general by rail and water. The canal will provide ample waterway for barges. The new harbor and the cutting of a ship canal, actually tunneled through solid rock for five long miles, joining the old harbor and the Mediterranean to the River Rhone. The Rhone's upper stretches are placid and already are used extensively for large navigation, but near Marseilles the stream is far too turbulent for commerce. A range of hills had prevented the construction of a canal in days gone by. Now, with France organized by the war and with the necessity for the canal emphasized thereby, the tunnel is being cut and the canal will soon be opened. The work was begun in 1911-12, and has been continued through the war. By this canal and links already available, barges can be sent from the Mediterranean to the English channel.

Cause of Oil Rashes.

Oil rashes in users of cutting lubricants and cooling liquids are found by the British department of scientific and industrial research to be generally due either to plugging of the small glands at the roots of the hairs of arms and legs, or to mechanical abrasion of the skin by suspended metal particles in the cutting oil. Suggestions are advanced that some of the rashes are due to the skin being scratched and the oxide powder before touching the oil, abundant absorption of soap and hot water, sterilizing of oil by heating to 200 degrees Fahrenheit and frequent change to clean cutting oil.

Shell Shock.

"What has got your wife into such terrible state of nervous agitation?" "Shell shock," replied Mr. Morden, "Shell shock!"
"Yes, I brought home some pictures and inadvertently scattered the shells on the floor."

GERMAN RIVERS FREE FOR ALL

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Paris, April 9.—The only definite information from the commission on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways, which has partially completed its report, is that agreements have been reached on the disposition of the following "enemy rivers": Elbe, Oder, Rhine and Danube. Recommendation has been made that these streams be internationalized to insure freedom of navigation. It is further recommended that free zones be created at certain German ports to protect the interests of the Czechs and the freedom of railway transit across enemy countries.

Bishop Turner Installed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Buffalo, N. Y., April 9.—With the most Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, archbishop of New York, as installing prelate, Bishop Gibbons, of Albany, as celebrant of the Mass and many other noted churchmen in attendance, the Right Rev. William Turner, recently in the chair of logic and moral philosophy at the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., became Bishop of Buffalo this morning. Bishop Turner arrived in the city last evening. He succeeds the Right Rev. Dennis J. Dougherty, who was recently appointed archbishop of Philadelphia.

Measuring Earth's Temperature.

A novel but simple method of measuring earth temperature has been successfully tried at a depth of 5,802 feet that of the bottom of the bore-hole of St. Jean d'Herans, the deepest in France. Two exactly similar centrifugal thermometers were cut off at 40 degrees and compared with a liquid thermometer to show that the indications were not affected. The shortened instruments were fixed in opposite positions—one inverted and the other erect—in a simple shaft. Lowered into the hole, they were then kept one hour at the bottom to acquire the rock temperature, and as this was above 40 degrees, some of the mercury was forced from the tubes. On being with drawn, the tubes were gradually heated in a water-bath until the mercury just filled them, which the standard thermometer showed was at 62.5 degrees in each. The surface temperature being 12.5 degrees, the earth in crease was one degree for each 165 feet of depth.

Aluminum Coins.

Africa has adopted the aluminum coin. Nearly 32,000,000 coins of this metal have been struck from the British mint for circulation in Uganda and the Nigerian protectorates. Each coin bears the value either of 1 cent or of 2 mills.

They are perforated in the center like Chinese coins, in order that natives may string them together. Bronze coins are in wide circulation on the west coast of Africa.

In the interior small shells known as cowries are used as fractional currency. It is to replace the cowries that the new coins have been struck.

France's First Lady Mayores.

In Mme. d'Evry France possesses her first lady mayores. The commune which unanimously appointed her as its representative is Nampcel, a little commune of the Aisne. Mme. d'Evry attended the general meeting of the mayors of the army zone held in Paris recently. She had a moving tale to tell of a village completely destroyed by the Germans, and of a population, or what is left of it living in the cellars or in the ruins capable of affording some kind of shelter. Mme. d'Evry, in simple, eloquent language, did full justice to her theme.

Commercial Prudence.

"Has he verified the reports of her wealth?" "Of course, he has. You don't suppose he would take her at her face value?"

"Yes, I saw that in the paper."

"That means we will be charged for every call."

"Each call will be a distinct charge, then?"

"Yes."

"I'm glad of that. I had an idea when they put a meter on the line they were going to charge us by the hour, and judging from the time it takes me to get a number now that would bankrupt me!"—Detroit Free Press.

Departed Glory.

"What are these curious inscriptions, professor?"

"Cuneiform writing of the ancient Assyrians."

"Can you read it?"

"Oh, yes."

"Is it fact or fiction?"

"Fiction, as a rule. Now, this block of stone bears the proud boast of a king that his fame will never die, yet there isn't a street or a public square on the face of the earth that is named after him now."

No News to John.

She (remissively)—Well, I very nearly didn't marry you, John. He (absent-mindedly)—I know; but who told you?—Boston Transcript.

ARE INVESTIGATING CONNELLY AFFAIR

The district attorney's office is investigating the revolver shots and broken windows at Connelly. Chief of Police Wood also visited the scene Tuesday. As related in The Freeman Tuesday the residents of that village were awakened at 1 o'clock that morning by revolver shots and crashing glass. The windows in the houses of two men employed on the Hiltchman shipyard had been broken. Stones and bricks were used. Fortunately no one was injured. There was a rumor about the streets today that the state police were also investigating the outrage, and that arrests may shortly follow.

BAVARIAN REVOLT.

Spreading Northward—German Red Army.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Geneva, April 8.—The Red counter revolution in Bavaria is spreading and now extends northward to Nuremberg and Augsburg, according to a report from Munich today.

(Nuremberg is the second city in size in Bavaria and lies 55 miles north of Munich. Augsburg is the capital of Swabia and is 35 miles northwest of Munich.)

A new Red army is being formed in Germany, said a dispatch from Berlin.

"Bavarian Bolsheviks Recognized."

By Telegram to The Freeman. Amsterdam, April 8.—The governments of the German states of Baden, Hesse and Wurttemberg have recognized the Bolshevik government headed by Premier Hoffmann as the only official regime in Bavaria, according to advices from Stuttgart today.

The Hoffmann government is opposed to the Red regime at Munich.

Attention--Everybody!

Will you shake off your cares --with your old clothes?

Have you ever stopped to think how much happier we are when we're dressed up?

Clothes have more effect upon us than we sometimes realize. Our deportment--yes, even our success, depends greatly upon our dress.

You may have noticed that the well-dressed man or woman--ability and other things being equal, is usually preferred to the person who is careless about his or her attire.

The person who wins in life is usually the one whose appearance bespeaks prosperity--and breathes success.

This is Dress-Up Week! Be-e on Hand!

The Boys are Coming Home!

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Andrew Kohl, wife of the proprietor of the City Hotel, Main street, celebrated the 53rd anniversary birthday today. She was the recipient of a large birthday cake adorned with 53 small American flags and a bouquet of 53 carnations.

March 28th having been the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Winfield, the Cornwall Pleasure Club, was entertained at their home in Cornwall, N. Y. During the evening the Hon. H. D. Chadeayne in behalf of the club, presented the couple with a silver tray. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meredith of Walkill, N. Y., presented them with a silver tray. Mrs. Meredith is a sister of Mrs. Winfield. Mr. Winfield's gift to his wife being solid silver teaspoons. The home was prettily decorated with festoons of smilax, Easter lilies and potted ferns. Mrs. Winfield is the eldest daughter of the late Solomon Pradenburgh, deceased. Their home being at Rifton, N. Y., adjoining the estate of the late J. W. Dimick.

Maresca-Barber. Miss Bessie M. Barber and Carl S. Maresca, both of Elmendorf street, were quietly married Monday evening at the parsonage of the Reformed Church of the Comforter by the pastor, the Rev. W. F. Stowe. They were attended by Miss Helen Barber and Edward R. Barber, sister and brother of the bride. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Maresca will reside in this city.

Lowell Club. The Lowell Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the R. A. R. Chapter House and spent a busy afternoon engaged in the Red Cross refugee garment work being done there. As there are 290 garments to be finished by the 26th of May, the club has decided to continue to meet at the chapter house each Tuesday afternoon for the present, and it is hoped that all members will be able to assist in this Red Cross work.

Black-Carney.

William H. Black of Pompton Lakes, N. J., formerly of Port Ewen, and Miss Grace Carney of Port Ewen were quietly married on March 22 at the home of the Rev. Ferdinand S. Wilson of Bayonne, N. J. They were attended by Miss Catherine Grabert and Frank Arlington. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mrs. Bertha Arlington, an aunt of the bride. Mr. Black is a foreman for the Actna Explosive Company. They have a large circle of friends who wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

Wanted in Syracuse.

William Lloyd was arrested today by Sergeant Phinney at the request of the Syracuse authorities where he is wanted to answer to a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. Lloyd has been in Kingston but a few days and was stopping on Converse street.

Roosevelt and Jiu Jitsu.

At Professor Kane's Jiu Jitsu academy in Tokyo many years later I met Professor Yamashita, who had taught the Japanese art to President Roosevelt in Washington three times a week for three years.

The president, he said, was his best pupil, but also his most dangerous. "Very heavy, very strong, very impetuous, he always attacked as if he was going to kill me. Oh, many bruises, much worry, great trouble, I assure you."

"I could not tell him. It is not Jiu Jitsu to complain, but when he would get me almost killed my trouble was to save my life without hurting him. No matter how badly he attacked I could not hurt. I could not kill the president of the United States. That was my point of honor," said J. C. Clark, in New York Evening Post.

Airplane Freight Carrier.

The airplane has proved its success as a carrier of mail; and in the Southwest, where most of the army's flying fields were laid out, airplanes are used daily for all-round utility business. A recent report from a Texas field tells of a pilot flying 125 miles from a practice field to the wing headquarters and carrying as a prisoner a watchman who had fallen asleep on duty. Upon his return trip to the camp he carried $2,500 in pay vouchers, 100 pounds of bread, four airplane wheels, landing gear and stumps, in addition he took in a large bundle of papers and magazines and a pouch full of mail.—Earl N. Findley in Red Cross Magazine.

Sappines in Brussels.

The Daily Telegraph in its account of the entry into Brussels of King Albert says: The Yanks came first in the military cortege which followed the royal party. Then came the French. An interval of 200 yards, and a silence, and then a sound strange to the Brusselsers, the skirl of bagpipes blown by thirty Highlanders leading the way for a company of their killed comrades. The Scotsmen, let it be recorded, had the success of destiny of the parade. How the ladies waved their handkerchiefs at the Highlanders waving back and then everybody waved his and her admiration for these stalwart men.

Parade of White Caps.

Quite unique in Cardiff, Wales, is the daily breakfast parade of the "white caps." The United States sailors and marines stationed in Cardiff are paraded every morning in batches at the Cardiff steam company of Westgate street, and thence march to different restaurants and hotels for breakfast. The operation is repeated for the mid-day meal and for tea. But the earlier parade is the more noticeable, because the otherwise deserted streets are then an unbroken succession of whitecaps.—London Mail.

NO ATTRACTION NOW.

Mrs. Gotham—I met your friend, Mr. Huggins, today.

Mr. Gotham—(over his paper)—Oh, did you?

"Yes. And he said you never called to see him at his office any more."

"Oh, did he?"

"Yes. You know you used to like to call at his office very often."

"Yes, I know."

"Well, why don't you now?"

"Well, you see, he had some trouble with his girl stenographers and typewriters, and he's got the choicest lot of female key punchers now you ever saw!"

An Uncertainty.

"I've voted for you every time you ran for anything," said the visiting constituent.

"I trust," replied Senator Sorghum, "you feel that your course was prompted by good judgment."

"I can't tell for sure. Sometimes I think it's good judgment and sometimes I think it's just a forgiving nature."

No Longer Vexed.

"I suppose some of these public questions vex you a great deal?"

"No," said Senator Sorghum, "I have ceased my efforts to solve every problem that arises. The way to keep questions from vexing you is to be the fellow that asks them instead of the fellow that tries to answer them."

A Bird in the Hand

(Special Information Service, United States Department of Agriculture.) MORE EGGS AND MEAT MARK TIMELY HATCHING

Start the Incubator Several Weeks Earlier and Raise More Profitable Chicks.

EARLY HATCHING OF IMPORTANCE

Fowls Realize Full Benefits From Propitious and Longer Growing Season.

FOSTERS EARLIER MATURITY

Hatch in Time for Best Broiler Markets and Also Produce Pullets Ready to Lay When Hens Want Needed Rest.

Fable is transforming into fact. It has been customary in allegorical statement only to allude to the hen that lays the golden eggs. In view of the present prices of eggs and poultry, it begins to look as if the age of the golden eggs had arrived. With marketing conditions for poultry products better than ever before, with a stabilized demand for quality products, and with prospects of larger amounts of feeds being available as a result of the cessation of war, there is every incentive for the poultryman's best efforts.

A fundamental factor which makes for greater success with hens is to hatch early. The early chick catches the worm both in the garden and in the economics of poultry production. The poultryman who aspires to beat the calendar and to hatch several weeks earlier than the cut-and-dried practice gains an advantage which permits him to market quality cockerels at less cost and greater profit much in advance of his associates who are unable to lighten their incubators or setting their hens. Chicks thrive and develop rapidly during the early days of spring; the early hatched fowls thus realize full benefits from the propitious and longer growing season.

Why to Hatch Early.

The early hatch spells sure profit, other conditions being equal, because it fosters the earlier maturity and early production of the pullets; it induces a stream of eggs at the season when prices are highest in general; it gives the chicks a chance to develop into strong in. It is difficult to get them to lay. Generally it takes from six and one-half to eight months for pullets of the general purpose breeds including the Plymouth Rock, Rhode Island Red, Wyandotte and Orpington varieties to mature and start laying. Hatched early in the season they will have ample time to mature.

Early hatching one season will make it easier to hatch early the following year. Early hatched pullets begin to lay in the fall and winter, and by the time early spring comes will usually have produced a considerable number of eggs and many of them will show a desire to sit. If on the other hand, the pullets are hatched late, they do not begin to lay until late winter or early spring and consequently are not likely to be broody when it is time to start hatching. Early hatching leads to early laying and early laying develops early broodiness, completing a cycle which should be the round robin aspiration of every progressive poultryman.

EARLY HATCH IS URGED

Early Hatching Means: More chicks raised. Less trouble from lice and disease.

A longer growing season. Better grown chicks.

Higher prices for cockerel broilers.

Chicks mature enough to withstand summer heat.

Well-matured, early-laying pullets.

Pullets supply eggs while hens are molting.

Egg plenty at season of high prices.

Early pullets that become broody sooner, the following spring.

Poultry Studies Wide in Scope.

In its efforts to encourage the broad development of poultry raising in the United States, the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture is conducting investigations to establish the best methods of raising many varieties of fowls. The present scope of the work includes not only the feeding, breeding, and care of ordinary poultry, but also the raising of pigeons, squabs, guineas, turkeys, and many other birds, including ostriches. The flesh of squabs, turkeys, guineas, geese and ducks makes a pleasing variety in the diet, and with wild fowls now becoming less available, it is important that a sufficient number of domestic birds be raised to keep the market constantly supplied. The problem now is chiefly one of farm production, which requires expert knowledge if adequate supplies are to be continued.

Peak Prices for Broilers.

It is economical practice to mature and fatten fowls for early market, as usually the peak prices are paid for such pre-seasoned broilers and springers. Early hatching is a prerequisite for the production of market-topping cockerels. The early chicks are favored by a long propitious growing season relatively free from dangers of disease and lice. They accomplish the most rapid gains and attain market conditions in record time several weeks earlier, and gain the time. Start the incubator to get the additional profits.

Seems So.

"Here I know you a long time, mother?"

"Yes, dear. Every since you were born."

"And have I known father a long time?"

"Certainly. You have known your father as long as you have me."

"I guess we all are acquainted about the same time, didn't we, mother?"
